

CHARLES F. GLOCK, Lt Col, USAF

MYRTLE BEACH | Charles F. Glock, age 87, formerly of South River, N.J., died Monday, Mar. 6, 2006 at Grand Strand Hospital.

Born in Spotswood, N.J., he lived in South River, N.J. before retiring to South Carolina in 1986. Mr. Glock retired in 1978 as a Lieutenant Colonel from the United States Air Force as a pilot. Mr. Glock was a veteran of World War II and flew B-26 with 67 missions and was awarded 13 air medals. He then worked for Hercules, Inc. in Parlin, N.J. He was a member of the Socastee United Methodist Church in Myrtle Beach.

Surviving are his wife, Irene Sitkowski Glock; two daughters, Linda Rodriguez of Sebastian, Fla., and Susan Ragucci of Columbus, N.J., and two grandchildren, Victoria Parker of Hoboken, N.J., and Kimberly Bruss of Robbinsville, N.J. He is also survived by three brothers and four sisters.

Mr. Glock was predeceased by his wives Elaine H. Glock and Lillian Glock and one sister.