Grand Strand Chapter Military Officers Association

President's Letter

We celebrated National Volunteer Month in April. As members of MOAA, you serve in a volunteer role that supports local veterans and their families, 17 JROTC units and the Coastal Carolina University ROTC program. I, along with your Board of Directors, thank you for your service and participation in these worthy and much needed causes.

Our Veterans' Outreach Program under the outstanding leadership of Truman Parmele has reached hundreds of needy veterans and their families. Our support of veterans and Native American Tribes is widely recognized among various Veteran Support Organizations (VSO) as serving a real need throughout the Grand Strand. Under Bill Stewart's leadership, we have greatly expanded our Veteran Education and Training Assistance Program (ETAP), working with the Veterans Administration (VA), Palmetto Goodwill, and Horry Georgetown Technical College (HGTC) to expand free job training and employment placement services to over a dozen homeless and unemployed veterans. To date, our ETAP has successfully entered nineteen veterans into HGTC and found 13 veterans employment in aircraft mechanics, LPNs, etc. This is quite an accomplishment and provides further evidence that our chapter cares and supports the needs of veterans and their families along the Grand Strand. I can't say enough about the great work performed by Greg Youngman and Dean Brown in leading our ROTC and JROTC programs. It takes an incredible amount of time and effort to coordinate and execute these programs.

These are just a few examples of how our MOAA members "Never Stop Serving." If you are looking for volunteer opportunities, please consider joining our fundraising team, Social Committee, Membership Committee, Golf Committee, Veterans Outreach Committee, or any of our other teams that are working hard each day to look out for the welfare of those in need.

I appreciate everything all of you are doing as volunteers in MOAA along with the other important volunteer activities in our area, such as Meals on Wheels and the Myrtle Beach Military Appreciation Committee, among others. As a good friend of mine always says, "we live to serve".

Never Stop Serving!

Chaplain's Corner

By Len Kircher

Chaplain, 101st Airborne Division, (Air Assault), (retired).

“When I was a young boy, I had a great grandfather who came from the old country: Germany. I didn’t know him but he had some unusual ways about him which he passed to my grandfather who I did know. Some would call it superstition; others would call it common sense, but his ways are practiced by many these days. One was planting. Every year he planted his flowers on Good Friday, rain or shine. He said what’s put in the ground on this Friday will certainly blossom to new life in the future. What a great tradition that was passed down! So much like Holy Week culminating on Easter Sunday. Easter was the beginning of hope for all! That hope continues on today and in the future. An empty tomb can fill the world with grace. It takes faith to believe in the empty tomb: that He who was buried on Friday rose to life again on Easter Morning. That’s the promise each of us have with faith in our Savior Jesus Christ. May your faith blossom in the future, and you rise again on that glorious day.”

Len Kircher

Financial Report

by Gale Fellowes, Treasurer

March was noteworthy for a wonderful social outing to Brookgreen Gardens, a glorious day that also netted a little over $200 to further our charitable works. Administratively, we successfully renewed our annual South Carolina registration as a charitable organization. Interestingly, this designation has no impact on our club’s requirement to pay sales taxes on items we buy (medals for cadets, a tent for the golf tournament, etc.), but crucially it allows entities that donate funds to us to claim a charitable deduction for their organization, giving them that much more incentive to continue supporting Grand Strand MOAA.

In April we awarded our annual two thousand dollar CCU ROTC Leadership Award in honor of our late friend, Bob Hawkins, COL, Army (ret). It was a great ceremony and a lot of fun to meet all the CCU cadets. Another example of how our chapter financially supports the education of young people who dream of military service. We ended March with financial balances as follows:

Operating Balance	$11,802.28
Grants Balance	$ 4,076.00
Reserve Account	$15,077.70
Total Balance	$30,955.98

DINNER PROGRAMS

March 2022 DINNER

Pine Lakes Country Club, Myrtle Beach

Program: Tom Herron, Founder/Host, "Up With America" Radio Hour

Mr. Herron, host of the Up With America Radio Hour, provided the Chapter with a audio visual presentation about his organizations goals and principles. He founded the non-profit organization Up With America, for which his radio program is named, to inform, inspire & celebrate the very best of America. His organization seeks to turn back to our country's founding documents by seeking "Smart Solutions" for America's pressing problems, focusing on three basic areas: society/culture; government; and the economy.

Mr. Herron's weekly radio program "Up with America" can be heard locally at 12 noon on WKRN 94.5 or thru the internet at TALK945.com. You can find additional information and more detailed description of the organization's work, on website <https://upwithamerica.org>.

The color guard for the dinner was provided by the Carolina Forest High School Navy JROTC unit.

April 2022

Pine Lakes Country Club, Myrtle Beach

Program: Recognition of CCU ROTC Cadets being commissioned in May and awarding of the Hawkins Leadership Award.

Guest Speaker: Colonel Elisabeth Litvin (USA, Retired)

In keeping with Chapter tradition, the April meeting was dedicated to recognizing Coastal Carolina University students graduating in 2022 and being commissioned as second lieutenants through the ROTC program. Each cadet was recognized and presented with a certificate and set of gold bars. The Chapter recognized 12 cadets at our dinner meeting as well expressing our gratitude to Captain Zack Currie who has worked closely with us during his tenure at CCU.

In addition, the Chapter presented its annual Hawkins Leadership Award to graduating senior Cadet Aaron Kanagy of Reedsville, Pennsylvania. The award includes a $2,000 stipend, certificate, and plaque. Cadet Kanagy was chosen from among his peers and will be serving the US Army as an Armor officer.

Finally, the Chapter awarded its MOAA Leadership Award to junior Curtis McDonell. Cadet McDonell was chosen by a committee headed by Captain Currie for his outstanding leadership in the ROTC unit. He was presented with a certificate and leadership ribbon.

Pictures and information about this gala event be found on page 4.

Upcoming May Dinner May 10 — Pine Lakes Country Club, Myrtle Beach

Program: Recognition of JROTC Instructors in the Grand Strand and Pee Dee area and presentation of winners of the Chapter JROTC Scholarships

Guest Speaker: Captain Kevin Boyle (USN, Retired)

This is one of the most significant programs of the year as it is the occasion on which we recognize the educators that are critical to the success of JROTC in our area, and we recognize those students whose exemplary academic achievements earned them a Chapter scholarship. A great deal of the Chapter's energy goes into the fund raising needed to make these scholarships available. It is at once a celebration of the dedication of the JROTC instructors in our midst, the achievement of these high school seniors, and the determination of our Chapter to support them. Don't miss this opportunity to participate in a great evening of celebration and appreciation.

CCU ROTC NIGHT AT THE GRAND STRAND CHAPTER

President Tony Prince presents a Chapter challenge coin to Col. Elisabeth "Liz" Litvin (USA, Ret). Col. Litvin was the evening's guest speaker.

Junior ROTC Cadet Curtis McDonell receives the MOAA Leadership Award medal and ribbon

Cadet Aaron Kanagy received the Chapter's Colonel Robert T. Hawkins Leadership Award. Upon graduating and commissioning, Cadet Kanagy will serve in the US Army Armor Branch.

CCU's ROTC leader Capt. Zack Currie was recognized for his support for the Chapter's work with ROTC.

HONORING OUR OWN

For the past 17 years, Hans Duerr has been the leader of the Chapter Scholarship program. He has run the 50-50 raffle at Chapter dinner meetings, informed local JROTC programs of the scholarships existence and application procedures, and led the committee selecting the scholarship recipients. We recognized Hans' extraordinary contributions to the Chapter's mission statement at our March dinner meeting and again two weeks later at an informal social at the Tidal Creek Brewhouse in Market Common. Thanks again, Hans, you have been an exceptional part of our Chapter. Your work leading our scholarship endeavors has touched the lives of untold number of young people.

Surviving Spouse Update

By Peggy DeVivo, Surviving Spouse Liaison and Social Chair

Thank you to all those who attended the tour of Brookgreen Gardens in March. We were blessed with a glorious day, had wonderful, knowledgeable guides, and were educated in the history of the Low Country and Brookgreen. This event set the bar very high for the upcoming social events. What a treat it was! I hope that those of you who do not have a Brookgreen membership will get one and visit often. As they say, "Ever changing, Simply amazing".

Our next get-together is a visit to the Burroughs and Chapin Art Museum on Thursday, April 28. We will be doing a 'self-guided' tour of the museum and going for lunch afterward. We will meet at the museum at 10 am. The docents will be assisting the Art Guild in judging the entrants to the Waccamaw Arts and Crafts Guild show that day. We may be able to eavesdrop on their conversations. Please look at the GS MOAA website for more information. During Military Appreciation month, military veterans will be honored at the Myrtle Beach Pelicans game at 6 p.m. on Saturday, May 14. You are encouraged to wear a military-inspired jersey. Military personnel and first responders save $3.00

Among other excursion being considered to offer Chapter members later this year are:

- Swamp Fox tours of Georgetown, SC, with an optional visit to the Kaminski House for the Commanders Tour, and lunch at Roots.
- Fall 2022 A visit to the "Yawkey Wildlife Center" in Georgetown.
- Sandy Island Tour, which includes an in-depth history of the Gullah people and a tour visit of the old Mt. Rena cemetery, Sandy Island's schoolhouse, its volunteer fire department, its villages, as well as a stop at Pyatt's General store. Upon request, experience a taste of Sandy Island cuisine.

If you have any ideas for other adventures, please forward them to me.

Lastly, if you know a surviving spouse in your neighborhood, church or community, please invite him or her to one of our dinner meetings to check us out. A surviving spouse of a military or uniformed service officer or warrant officer, who was or was not a chapter or national MOAA member can join our chapter in his or her own right, at no charge. For more information, contact to Peggy DeVivo or Paul Williamson,

GRAND STRAND MOAA 2022 GOLF TOURNAMENT

Planning is underway for the 2022 MOAA Golf Tournament fundraiser on 10 September 2022 at the Wild Wing Plantation Golf Club in Conway. This year's flyer with additional details is on page 8.

We are hoping for another sellout. Registration fees remain the same as in prior years: $90 per golfer ($85 for veterans) which includes a round of golf plus breakfast, lunch, ice cream and various gifts. We will also offer a cash 50/50 raffle, prize raffle, mulligans, silent auction, and, and more. Individual GS MOAA members can support the tournament by purchasing a $100 Tee Sign donation even if you don't play golf. It really helps!

The golf tournament is the Chapter's largest event to raise funds to support JROTC units and cadet scholarships as well as Coastal Carolina University ROTC cadets.

Let Jim Offutt know if you are interested in helping with the tournament or serve on the committee.

National MOAA Update

Changing laws on Capitol Hill is arduous work. Bills addressing critical issues can get stuck in subcommittees for a full two-year congressional session or advance through committee but still not get vote on the floor. MOAA members can move these changes forward, but only if we're all pulling in the same direction. That's where Advocacy in Action comes in.

President Dana Atkins encourages all MOAA members to take part in this campaign. Send a message to your lawmakers supporting MOAA's priorities and watch for updates and future calls to action via The MOAA Newsletter, MOAA's Advocacy News page, and MOAA.org/AiA. Our goal is to reach all 535 congressional offices with our message, and we can't do it without your support.

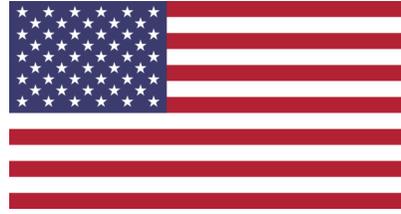

These are three of the priority issues MOAA is working hard on now in this Congressional session:

- Concurrent Receipt for Combat-Injured Servicemembers: H.R. 1242 and S. 344 would fix a longstanding injustice by allowing tens of thousands of combat-injured veterans to receive full retired pay and disability pay. The bills have 205 House co-sponsors, adding 54 since January, and is at a critical point as lawmakers draft the FY 2023 National Defense Authorization Act .
- Affordable mental health for TRICARE beneficiaries. The Stop Copay Overpay Act (H.R. 4824) would overturn the doubling of TRICARE copays for mental health care in recent years. The bipartisan bill has only four co-sponsors, but additional momentum from your efforts would improve chances of inclusion in the FY 2023 NDAA.
- A 4.6% military pay raise. This raise is linked by statute to the Employment Cost Index and applies to all of our uniformed services. MOAA's efforts focus on ensuring raise is not reduced to fund other programs or pay table overhauls We cannot contact every one of the 535 lawmaker offices on Capitol Hill without your help. Your legislators want to hear from you, by any method.
